PERFECTED IN HIS TIMING

Late one evening after my dad went to heaven I was sitting alone and weeping. Out of the silence I heard in my spirit the Lord say to me, "IT'S TIME." It was such a weighty word that it reverberated in my spirit for weeks after that. Those two words don't sound like much, but I had been waiting to hear them for a long time. All of my life I've been praying "God, I will go anywhere you want me to go, and I will do anything you want me to do. Just tell me!" I was sure of one thing. I wanted to do whatever He wanted me to do. I prayed before each place I moved, and before each job that I accepted. I prayed after high school, after

I had graduated Bible College, and after I had completed my undergraduate degree. Each time I heard the same answer: "WAIT."

When God speaks to us, a few words can have such life changing impact if we're willing to let them. In those two words, I heard and saw my calling to step into my dad's shoes and become an evangelist, as well as great dreams for the future of this ministry and the people we will be able to reach.

Ricky started out with a calling, a testimony, and a Bible. He had only been out of prison a few weeks when he applied to be a prison chaplain so that he could witness

We pray for those who aren't saved so that THEY CAN KNOW JESUS. He told us that "The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields." (Matthew 9:37-38 NLT) to the inmates, and began calling every church in the phonebook to ask if he could speak. His first mission trip to Nepal was a Bible delivery mission. He knew God wanted him to go, and God miraculously provided the funding. Because of his obedience, great signs and wonders happened and many believed in Jesus.

I am gravely aware of my need for God's power and presence in everything that I am doing. I will not put my own agenda forward— It's all about glorifying our Awesome God. I know that our trip to France and UK is a praying mission, but I believe that great signs, wonders, and miracles will happen, and many will believe in Jesus. Will you join your faith with mine? "You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. "For God loves a person who gives cheerfully." And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others."

This photo from January, 2016 is of the refugee camp outside of Calais, France. This camp was called the "Calais Jungle" and housed more than 6000 refugees from infant to elderly who were fleeing from the middle east; they were no longer safe at home. This camp has been closed by the French government as of Dec 2018. The nation of France and these refugees need our prayers, and they need to know the love of Jesus! (Photo by Malachy Browne 2016)

me that I would be receiving a bonus that was exactly 10 times what we decided to give. We immediately knew that God poured out His blessing because we had been faithful to give obediently."

"For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity in you." (2 Corinthians 9:10 NLT)

TESTIMONY

We recently received this story from one of our RLM Partners about God's faithfulness: "After my husband and I heard the news Ricky had passed, we began talking about giving a gift to RLM. We knew we wanted to give but, we were unsure of the amount. We both decided to pray separately and then talk again. After our individual prayer time, we decided on an amount that was a leap of faith for us. Three weeks after we gave, my boss told
