FANNING THE FLAMES

Having done all, STAND by Sarah Leonard

Overwhelmingly Victorious!: that's you! (Romans 8:37) That truth doesn't change based on how we are feeling. We stand and fight because that's what we do, and we always win the fight because that is who we are! Our identity is determined by what God says about us, not by our past or by our current situation. Your thoughts and feelings may not line up with that truth at times, you may even have been knocked down while endeavoring to triumph, but in God's mind, it's never over until you have won the fight. When you know that Christ always leads us in triumph (2 Corinthians 2:14), then you can face anything the devil wants to throw at you, and you can laugh and say "Is that all you've got!?"

You've got to get rid of the "quit" mindset. When thoughts come like "I can't do it" or "it's too much for me" remember that Christ paid the price for you to win, and He will lead you in the victory. You're not facing this on your own, and you're not helpless or empty-handed. Colossians 2:15 says "in this

God Knows what He's Adoin'

By Mary Leonard

I was recently talking with a long-time friend in the ministry who is also a widow. She has asked me in the past, "when are you going to start in the ministry?" I always said, "That's not my calling." We laughed together as we said what Ricky would think of the Lord pulling me into the ministry now; he would have laughed about it too. She was very wise and gave me the advice to "yield" to the Lord and do what He had planned for RLM. God has got BIG things planned! As Kenneth E. Hagin used to say, "He knows what He's adoin'" I'm very excit-way, he (Jesus) disarmed the spiritual rulers and authorities. He shamed them publicly by his victory over them on the cross."

What do you do when you feel like a failure? What do you do when it seems like all hope is lost? You stand. You fight. Ephesians 6:13 (NLT) says "put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm." Spend time reading and meditating on the Bible. Remind yourself of the promises of God, and of His faithfulness to you in your past. Since He sent his son to die for your sins and make you right with Himself, why would He not give you everything else? (Romans 8:32)

His armor? Righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, the word of God, and prayer. Think about it: you already have all of these. Time to activate them. Pick up that faith shield and block those darts! God says you win—so STAND FIRM.

ed about what He is working out for us to do in Mexico! I believe that it is just the first among many trips to that country. God loves Mexico and there are so many who need Jesus there. "For a great door and effectual is opened to me..." 1 Corinthians 16:9

"And pray for me, too. Ask God to give me the right words so I can boldly explain God's mysterious plan that the Good News is for Jews and Gentiles (and Mexicans) alike." Ephesians 6:19
